Make a soupilicious start for any meal!

Soup: It's woven within the DNA of menu starters, and at Christmastime there's no better opportunity than to maximise your margin, whilst still maintaining exceptional taste and quality.

Frozen is your new fresh; utilising our range of wholesome, frozen core ingredients allows you - the kitchen guru, to add your own distinct flavour profiles and additions, to make an exclusive cocktail of soupilicious starters for your guests.

Every kitchen is as unique as its operator; and every recipe is as imaginative as the ingredients utilised – but the basic rule of soup making is using a good stock. Once you have a good base, the core ingredient to stock ratio is 50% to 100% respectively, e.g., 500g mushrooms to every 1 litre of stock (or a combination of stock & milk / cream etc.).

Keep on adding layers of flavour; Try adding aromatics like carrots, onions, green onions, garlic and celery as well as herbs like parsley and thyme. Spices could include black pepper, allspice, whole chillies, curry powder δ paprika.

Let it rest; always try to let soup rest for at least 30 minutes and preferably for at least an hour. In fact, the secret to good soup is that it's often even more delicious the next day! This is because all those delicious layers of flavour fuse with each other to produce the perfect palate harmony.
